

The coveted Inc. India magazine has recognized Mr. Ganesh Jivani with the award of India's top 30 innovative CEOs. This comes as recognition of Jivani's astuteness and strategies that have been the strong pillars of Matrix success. Its two decades of operations, Matrix has been consistently growing in terms of revenue and market share.

It is a great honor to be counted as one of India's top 30 Innovative CEOs," said Mr. Ganesh Jivani, CEO of Matrix Comsec. At Matrix, we are on a mission to prove Indian engineers can design and build world-class technology products. If necessity is the mother of invention, creating technology products from India offer ample opportunities for innovation. I thank Inc. for thinking of such an award and finding me deserving it. The award has provided Matrix a platform and motivated me to continue challenging status-quo and keep pushing the technology boundaries."

Inc. India Innovative 100 award is first of its kind initiative to recognize top 30 Innovative CEOs. Main objective of Inc. India was to identify and recognize CEOs who have led their companies to growth at home and expansion abroad with bold ideas and determined executions. The Innovative 100 Awards were judged on four parameters of uniqueness of idea, reliability, scalability and tangible business impact.
