

SARVAM UCS PRASAR UCS ANANT UCS & ETERNITY NE

VMS User Card

Voice Mail
with Auto Attendant

To Access Your Mailbox

Accessing your Mailbox from your extension:

- Dial 3931 (For SARVAM, PRASAR & ANANT)/ 390 (For ETERNITY NE).
- System prompts you with:
“You have no new messages”, if there are no new messages in your mailbox.
“You have n new messages”, if there are new messages in your mailbox (n=No. of messages).
- Enter your Mailbox password®.
- You will enter the Mailbox Access Menu.

Accessing your Mailbox from another extension:

- Dial 3941/3942/3943 (For PRASAR & ANANT 3932/3933/3934 For ETERNITY NE 3801/3802/3803)
- The system will play the Welcome Message.
- Dial 8. System prompts you to dial the extension number.
- Dial your extension number to access your mailbox.
- System prompts you with:
“You have no new messages”, if there are no new messages in your mailbox.
“You have n new messages”, if there are new messages in your mailbox (n=No. of messages).
- Enter your Mailbox password®.
- You will enter the Mailbox Access Menu.

Accessing your Mailbox through an external number using DISA Login:

- Log into the System using DISA.
- If CLI Based Authentication is enabled, the system prompts you to dial the desired extension number.
- If PIN Authentication is enabled, the system prompts you to dial your Extension Number and Password.

IMPORTANT!

For SARVAM UCS you need to purchase a VMS module and license while in PRASAR UCS/ ANANT UCS/ ETERNITY NE you need only the license.

The instructions in this User Card are based on default configurations (Region : India).

Default VMS Access Code is 3931 for SARVAM/PRASAR/ ANANT and 390 for ETERNITY NE.

Default Mailbox Password is 1111. Make sure new Password is strong and kept confidential.

®VMS will not prompt for the password if the parameter Ask Password to Access Mailbox' is not enabled.

*The Date and Time formats will vary by Region.

For detailed description refer to the respective System Manual. The documentation can be found at <http://www.matrixtelesol.com/product-manuals.html>

To Access Your Mailbox (Cont.)

- Dial 3931 to access your Mailbox.
- System prompts you with:
“You have no new messages”, if there are no new messages in your mailbox.
“You have n new messages”, if there are new messages in your mailbox (n=No. of messages).
- Enter your Mailbox password®.
- You will enter the Mailbox Access Menu.

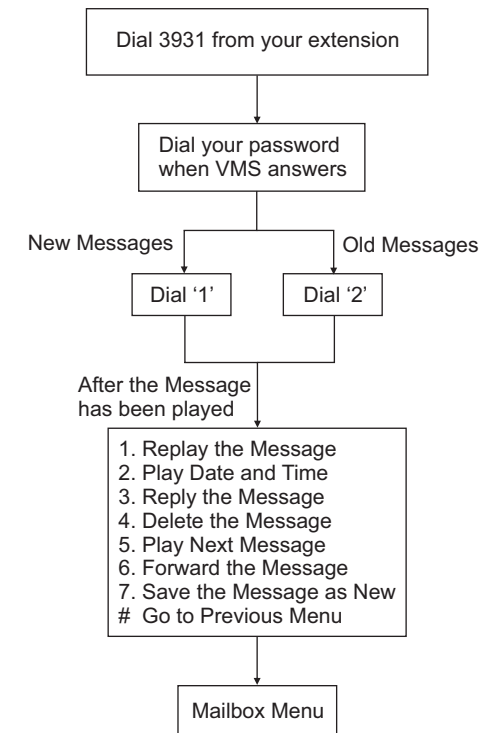

Accessing your Mailbox using the VMS Auto-Attendant:

- Call the trunk on which Voice Mail Auto Attendant is enabled.
- The VMS answers the call, while the system plays the Welcome Message, dial 8.
- Dial 8. System prompts you to dial the extension number.
- Dial your extension number to access your mailbox.
- System prompts you with:
“You have no new messages”, if there are no new messages in your mailbox.
“You have n new messages”, if there are new messages in your mailbox (n=No. of messages).
- Enter your Mailbox password®.
- You will enter the Mailbox Access Menu.

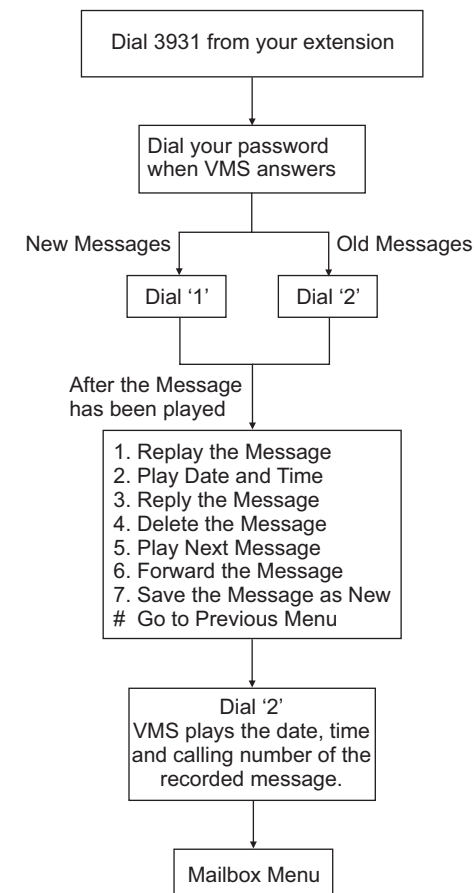

The VMS offers the following Voice Mail features:

- Listening to New Messages.
- Listening to Old Messages.
- Sending a Message.
- Settings Alarms and Reminders.
- Listening to Message Details.
- Redirecting Messages.
- Forwarding Messages.
- Saving Message as New.
- Deleting Messages.
- Assigning a Name to the Mailbox.

To Listen to Messages

To Listen to Message Details

To Send Messages

To Set Alarms

To Record Greeting Messages

To Set Reminders

To Forward Messages

To Assign a Name to the Mailbox

To Delete a Message

To Change Message Redirection Options

To Delete All Old Messages

